For real merit in acting, high order of plays, excellence in vaudeville features and manner of presentation the Bennett-Moulton Co., which will be at the opera house all this week undoubtedly is far superior to any similar organization on the road. This company has been in existence 20 years, and has made a reputation that is second to none. It never advertises anything which it is not capable of doing and by this mode has gained the confidence of our theatre going public and they never fail to respond heartily. We feel certain that the same will hold good this year and shall be glad to see all of our friends.

MISS HATCH IS FOUND

Randolph Woman's Mind Wandering.

WAS ABSENT THREE DAYS

Captured at Farm of Willis Howard at an Early Hour Today, in a Terrible Condition.

Randolph, May 25.—Miss Maude Hatch who had been missing since Sunday afternoon, was found at 4 o'clock this morning by Willis Howard at his farm, about two miles from this village. Mr. Howard saw Miss Hatch last evening and ran after her but she also ran and got into the woods and out of sight before he could get to the woods. Again at 4 o'clock this morning Mr. Howard saw her and again ran for her this time overtaking and bringing her to his house where he got her team and took her home here at 5:30 o'clock this morning.

Miss Hatch was in hard shape, tired out, badly bitten by mosquitoes, blind still wandering and almost unable to walk. She had had nothing to eat since she left. She said she was trying to find her brother-in-law's farm in Bethel Lympus.

Miss Hatch was found in the same strip of territory that was covered by the searching party yesterday forenoon. The citizens who have done all they possibly could for her safe return, are glad to know she has been found and is alive.

About 150 men searched all night for the woman. Great interest was shown because of her father's prominence, he being town clerk and not because of the reward. The woman's special mania is in the line of spiritualism. She left a 100-page letter on that subject when she disappeared. No serious result from the exposure is expected.

The game was called at the end of the first half of the sixth inning so that Goddard could catch the evening train for home.

The fish weighs one pound and seven ounces. The fish looks as much like a cross between a bass and a sucker as anything.
